Read the paragraph and answer the questions below:

Liam and Noah were working on a school project and needed to choose a story to share with the class, but they didn't agree because Liam liked reading books while Noah preferred watching videos. Noah said that he didn't enjoy long books and liked cartoons and animations, so Liam stopped and thought for a moment before suggesting an idea. He told Noah that they could choose a story with pictures and real facts. After school, Noah was watching a short documentary about animals, and while he was watching it, he became curious and opened a small book that talked about the same topic. The next day at school, Noah was excited and told Liam that the story was interesting and that their project would be fun. Liam was happy because they finally agreed and started planning their presentation together.

Read the text and answer the question:

Last Saturday, I went to the movie theater with my cousin to watch a new sci-fi movie. It was based on a famous mystery book, so I was very excited. The plot was about a boy who got lost in a desert after a sandstorm. While he was walking alone, he found a small robot that could whisper and give directions. The boy decided to follow the robot, but a strange man was watching them from far away.

My favorite character was the robot because it was brave and helpful. At the end, the robot helped the boy find his family, and everyone felt relieved. I really enjoyed the movie, and I didn't want it to end!

1- What kind of story is this?

- a. Comedy
- b. Sci-f
- c. Fairy tale

2- What happens in Act II ?

- a. The boy goes to the movie theater.
- b. The boy meets a robot and decides to follow it
- c. The robot helps the boy find his family.

3- What is the resolution (how the story ends)?

- a. The robot helps the boy find his family, and everyone feels relieved
- b. The strange man takes the robot
- c. The boy stays lost in the desert

4- What is the main problem in the story?

- a. The boy gets lost in the desert
- b. The boy can't buy a ticket
